COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The tax rate for 1964 has been set at $10.00 per thousand dollars valuation. This is a drop of one mill from the rate of $11 mills last year. Although there seemed to be a normal amount of new construction, the total valuation of the town only increased a little over $10,000.00. The value of the town for 1963 was $6,496,291.00 and this year it is $6,507,753.00. The loss of over $30,000.00 in commercial valuation is the reason that the increase in total valuation was not larger. I might add that some commercial values were decreased by a substantial amount, some were increased by a substantial amount, and some remained very near the same as they were last year. The net result is an increase of about $10,000.00 for the total town valuation.

On Monday of this week two members of the board of selectmen and the town manager went to Augusta to discuss the value of the town that is determined by the State Bureau of Taxation. For state purposes the value of the town will probably increase about $200,000.00. There are many reasons for this increase and the selectmen were satisfied that an increase this year will be necessary. The town will now have a state valuation of about $3,950,000.00. The state figure is used mainly to determine subsidies and apportion the town's share of the county tax.

I didn't mention earlier that the typing of the commitment book and tax bills was started Tuesday of this week. The tax bills will all be mailed at one time, about Oct. 13.

GIRL SCOUT PLAY DAY

Local Brownie and Girl Scout Troops enjoyed their second annual Play Day Saturday at Littlefield's Beach.

One hundred Scouts and their leaders participated in the program of games, treasure hunt, soft ball, group singing, and scavenger hunt.

The day's events began with a flag raising ceremony led by Junior Scouts. Cadette Scouts were in charge of building the camp fires for the noontime cookout for Junior and Cadette Scouts who cooked their own foil-wrapped dinners in the hot coals. Brownie leaders prepared lunch for their groups.

Adults present were: Mez Cousins, Mary Lou Fiske, Mary Doon, Virginia Keniston, Ann Cross, Barbara Olson, Barbara Bryant, Marguerite Kendall, Carolyn Brooks, Margaret Davis, Betty Robertson, Alberta Angove, Agnes Thurston, Hope Tibbets, Arlene Brown, Dale Thurston.

The closing circle and taps concluded the day's activities.

MEETING HELD TO DISCUSS SECONDARY EDUCATION IN UNION 22

On Wednesday night, September 16, Dr. Francis Parkman met with interested persons and School Union 22 members at the Crescent Park School in Bethel. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss secondary education in School Union No. 22. Dr. Parkman is Consultant for the Gould Academy Trustees Committee which is studying the future role of Gould Academy in the community.

CONCERT AT GOULD MONDAY MORNING

Miss Ida Hartman, concert pianist, will appear in solo recital at Gould Academy Monday morning, September 28, at 11:00 o'clock. Her program will consist of the following:

Program: Rhapsody in B Minor, Opus 29, No. 1, Brahms; Sonata in D Minor Opus 31, No. 2, Chopin; The Tempest, Beethoven; Largo-Allegro, Adagio, Allegretto; Nocturne in C Sharp Minor, Opus 27, No. 1, Chopin; Mazurka in B Minor Opus 33, No. 4, Chopin; Mazurka in D Flat, Opus 30, No. 1, Chopin; Ballade in G Minor, Opus 23, Chopin.

A native of Lafayette, Ind., Miss Hartman was a child prodigy. Making an early debut at Town Hall in New York, she has given recitals in virtually every state in the union played concertos with many symphony orchestras and chamber music works with several leading ensembles.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss and Mrs. James I. McFarland and Patti, who have been in Japan three years, arrived Monday to spend some time with Mrs. Virginia McFarland before going to Westover, Mass. where he will be stationed.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY WEEK IN MAINE OCT. 4-10

Governor John H. Reed has proclaimed the period from October 4-10 as National Highway Week in Maine. In so doing he asked the people "to give their wholehearted recognition and support to the tremendous highway program that is being carried on throughout Maine and the United States."

Participating in the proclamation signing ceremony with Gov. Reed in his State House office were David H. Stevens, chairman, and Guy E. Nicholas, director of special services, State Highway Commission, and Sterling Holway of Augusta, president, and Edward F. Cox, executive director, Maine Good Roads Association.

The observance is being sponsored in Maine by the Commission and association and nationally by the American Association of State Highway Officials. Nicholas and Cox are co-chairmen.

Gov. Reed's proclamation called attention to the construction of Interstate 95 that will upon completion stretch 312 miles from Kittery to the Canadian border at Houlton, as well as the modernization of the state's primary, secondary and urban roads.

The governor also noted that "the orderly advancement of our state and national highway program promises a sharp reduction in the tragic waste of human and economic resources. It has been conservatively estimated that modern highways can return their costs threefold in direct benefits to the users, such as safety, time savings and motoring economy."

A special Highway Week program is being arranged for representatives of Maine's news media in the Augusta-Bangor area on Monday, October 5, including a preview trip over Interstate 95 between Newport and Fairfield. This section is scheduled to be opened to public traffic October 31.

domed buildings, the building code and mobile homes. Some indications were given that the building code might be made more specific, and enforced accordingly.

As to mobile homes, the subject is still a lively one in Bethel, although an ordinance regulating it was "passed over" when presented at the 1963 town meeting.

Also on the agenda was further consideration of having a professional planner do a survey of the town. Prior to the next meeting a copy of such a survey, done in another Maine town, will be circulated among board members for their study.

Next session of the board is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Oct. 15, in the selectmen's office.

It is what you learn after you know it all that counts.

TEACHERS TO ASSIST IN REPORTING PRESIDENTIAL VOTE

Returns of the presidential election in Maine will be finished to news services by a volunteer corps of teachers, Clyde Russell, executive secretary of the Maine Teachers Association, has announced.

Mr. Russell said that MTA is cooperating in an arrangement requested by major news services and broadcasters, Associated Press, United Press International, and the ABC, NBC, and CBS broadcast networks.

The MTA Citizenship Committee, under the chairmanship of Supt. Lloyd D. Hatfield, York, is making arrangements to post a teacher, backed by an alternate in each of Maine's 625 voting precincts. As soon as polls close the teacher on duty will telephone returns to a Portland switchboard where they will be available to all news services and broadcasters. Teachers will report only the returns for the presidential and congressional races.

Mr. Russell said that this system will prevent early broadcasts of conflicting returns. Every news service will have the same results at the same time.

"We are gratified that the news services thought of teachers when they were looking for reliability and accuracy," he said. A similar method is being followed in other states.

Mr. Russell said although the teachers will act as volunteers, their joint services will earn

PURITY CHAPTER HOLDS ANNUAL INSPECTION

Purity Chapter held a special meeting on Monday evening at the Chapter rooms for the purpose of annual inspection. Inspecting officer was Worthy Grand Matron Agnes D. Swett of Biddeford.

There were guests present from Mt. Zion Chapter, Rumford; Granite Chapter, West Paris; Monitor Chapter, Dixfield; and Jefferson Chapter, Bryant Pond. Grand Marshal Margaret Johnson was also present at the meeting.

A pot luck supper was served in the dining room at 6:30. Committee in charge was Mrs. Charles Chapin, Mrs. Rodney James, Mrs. Earlon Paine and Mrs. Herbert Morton, Jr.

$1,500, that will be paid by the news services to the MTA treasury. The Executive Committee, he said, is studying a worthy use for the money that will advance the cause of Maine education.

The Citizenship Committee, which is in charge of setting up arrangements, has furnished Superintendents with a list of the voting precincts that fall within the geographical limits of their school districts. Local teachers associations have been asked to cooperate in finding volunteers to fill the slots in each precinct.

Members of the Citizenship Committee are: Clyde Bartlett, South Portland; Florence Boone, Calais; Dean Bennett, Yarmouth; Wilmet Kienstead, Caribou; Emmons Pinkham, Oakland; Lloyd Hatfield, York; Mrs. Virginia Merrill, North Anson.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

The hard philosophical and political core of the Goldwater movement rests on the belief that in previous presidential contests the American people have been offered an excessive dose of "me-tooism," that great numbers of voters have had no place to go, that they deserve and want something very different, and that his year they are going to get just that.

Senator Goldwater's campaign, then, consists of providing the voters with "a choice, not an echo." President Johnson is doing precisely the same thing. As U. S. News & World Report puts the contest, "It's a sharply defined study in contrasts presented on presidential ballots this year. . . . The two men have conflicting ideas on almost every phase of the Presidency—in domestic problems, in international affairs, economic policy, defense, the whole role of Government." That has certainly been proven in the early campaign moves and speeches.

Take, for instance, one of the most important issues—that of permitting NATO commanders to order the use of certain kinds of nuclear weapons. Senator Goldwater has said, "I have suggested that a way must be developed to provide NATO with its own stock of small, tactical, nuclear battlefield weapons—what may be truly called conventional weapons." The President's answer was a direct, unequivocal rebuttal: "Make no mistake. There is no such thing as a conventional nuclear weapon." No one could ask for a greater difference than that on a question of major policy.

The President stands on his domestic record—on his successes with Congress and the state of the economy. The Goldwater position is that our prosperity is illusory, that it is based on false and dangerous fiscal premises, and that profound trouble is in the offing unless drastic changes are made. Again, the differences are fundamental, irreconcilable, and far-reaching.

The roles of the Vice President, the President's Representative Miller and Senator Humphrey, will be important. They will do tough, down-to-earth fighting. Their opponents are all looked on as villains of the deepest dye—their supporters a collection of Sir Galahads.

So the choice, a real choice, is here. Something like 70 million Americans will make the final decision.

COUPLE'S CLUB TO MEET

The meeting of the Methodist Couple's Club on Saturday, September 26th, at 7:30 p. m., will be held at the Church Annex rather than at the home of the Norman Docks, due to the anticipated large attendance.

Co-hostesses Mrs. Norman Dock, Mrs. Eldon Greenleaf and Mrs. Randal Stevens have planned an evening of fellowship, including a lovely color film narrated by James Cagney, as well as a discussion of future Club plans. Refreshments will be served by the hostesses.

And so it goes—with civil rights legislation, with the war on poverty, with the whole question of what a central government should and should not do for and to its citizens, with local and individual rights and responsibilities.

There has been speculation that the President would conduct what is called, for want of a better term, a high-level campaign, making primary use of the White House and his office as a sounding board and employing TV as his principal tool. There is doubt now as to this, Mr. Johnson—like Senator Goldwater—was never one to hold back from the battlefront when the political wars were on. It is also reported that he is dubious of the polls, which show him far in the lead, and means to use every instrument he can command to make his case and to make himself available to live audiences. That is what local groups, interested in governorships, congressional seats, and other lesser offices, want.

The roles of the Vice President, the President's Representative Miller and Senator Humphrey, will be important. They will do tough, down-to-earth fighting. Their opponents are all looked on as villains of the deepest dye—their supporters a collection of Sir Galahads.

So the choice, a real choice, is here. Something like 70 million Americans will make the final decision.

OXFORD COUNTY FARMS AIDED BY FARM OWNERSHIP LOANS

Credit needs of Oxford County farmers hindered by the problem of obtaining finances to develop and enlarge holdings necessary for a successful operation often may be met by a USDA Farmers Home Administration farm ownership loan.

In reporting this fact, Elwyn R. Morrow, FHA county supervisor, this week explained this is not just a local problem but a national one faced by thousands of farm families.

"Throughout the United States today are thousands of family farmers who require supervised credit for doing such important things as combining small land tracts, establishing permanent pastures, financing needed soil and water improvements, constructing or renovating dwellings and essential farm buildings or taking other necessary steps to increase their farm's income-producing capacity and efficiency," pointed out Mr. Morrow.

In general, agricultural producers facing this problem are in a group of some 1,000,000 farm operators who now gross from $2,500 to $10,000 annually and require additional income to remain on the farm under the present day's economic conditions.

"FHA farm ownership credit for enlarging and developing farms are tailored to meet the needs of individual farmers," explained Mr. Morrow.

Borrowers are also helped in analyzing their financial problems and given assistance in determining kinds and amounts of resources needed for success.

Three loans carry a 5 percent annual interest rate on the unpaid principal and are scheduled in equal principal and interest installments for repayment over a period not to exceed 40 years. It is the privilege of each farmer borrower to make additional payments during high income years in order to establish a reserve that may be used to keep the loan in good standing during low income periods.

Application for Farmers Home Administration loans may be made at Mr. Morrow's office at South Paris, Maine on Mondays of each week from 8 to 12 noon and 1 to 5 p. m.

McINTIRE STATES PERSONAL PLATFORM

"This I Believe," by Congressman Clifford McIntire (2nd District) candidate for the United States Senate:

Foreign Policy: I believe our lack of foreign policies—with the subsequent results of disaster in Cuba and Viet Nam, to name but two of the many hot spots in this world—is the greatest danger this nation faces.

Events of the past four years have proven that lack of policies and the coexistence attitude have hurt the prestige of the United States. There is something wrong when our flag is spat upon, our embassies are stoned, our citizens abroad are attacked and beaten.

I believe in putting the United States first. Peace can be achieved only when we live up to the responsibilities of leadership. Those who wish to bury us should know clearly that we will never trade freedom for slavery.

Foreign Aid: I believe that in our role as a leading nation of the world we must be responsive to the needs of friendly nations.

I do not believe that the United States should be the prime support of every nation on earth that wants only our dollars but not our friendship.

Over 100 billion American dollars have gone to friend and foe, often rewarding our enemies more than our friends.

This program needs major reform with a cut in cost to the taxpayer, a cut in red tape, and bureaucratic overhaul. Trade With The Enemy: I believe it is wrong to do business with any nation whose goal is to destroy our system of government.

Those who espouse the sale of wheat to Russia on the grounds that it would help ease the flow of gold out of the United States have been deluded by the Democratic Administration.

Here again, the lack of national objectives has put this nation into a position where the long-range good is sacrificed for the short-term advantage.

I opposed the sale of wheat to Russia.

I am opposed to Russian consulates in this country.

I am opposed to the recognition of Red China.

COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS AT BUCKFIELD

A meeting of the Oxford County Republican Committee was held Tuesday evening at the Masonic Hall in Buckfield. A 6:30 dinner was served by the Order of Eastern Star, followed by a business meeting under the leadership of Chairman Fred E. Hanscom of Rumford.

An all-candidates night is planned to be held at the Rumford Armory Wednesday, October 7, at 8:00 p. m. The honored guests will be Congressman Clifford G. McIntire, now running for the U. S. Senate; Governor John H. Reed; and Kenneth P. MacLeod, candidate for U. S. Congress. All Republican County and Local candidates also will be present. Free refreshments will be served. An invitation is extended to all as it is hoped the people will bring their entire family to meet the candidates at this informal gathering. General arrangements are being made by Malcolm White and Stuart Martin of Rumford, and John Black of Dixfield.

Plans also have been made

LOCKE MILLS

Mrs. Rodney Cross, Jr., Correspondent

Leland Farr, West Poland, was an overnight guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Harold Churchill, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wagner, Berlin, N. H., spent last week end at Camp Wagner on Tanglehill Pond.

There will be a record hop Friday evening at the town hall from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m. for the benefit of the Babe Ruth League. Ken Ellis will be there to spin the records.

Jonathan Roberts, who is a hospital patient, is reported as improving.

Lyla Ross, South Paris, spent Saturday at her camp on Tanglehill Pond.

Mrs. Dorothy Swan, daughter of Mrs. Ann H. Swan, celebrated her 12th birthday with a family party Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McAllister and Mrs. Lillian Saunders were present.

SONGO POND

Mrs. Ralph Kimball, Cor., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lincoln have returned from Boston where they took their daughter Margaret Rose, to enroll as a student nurse at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cymrot, Mrs. Marian Rich, and Mrs. Dorothy Tenney have closed their summer places here and returned to their respective homes in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Roseland, Va. and New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. David Salway and baby have moved to the farm at Lake Kimball house.

GOULD CROSS COUNTRY PROSPECTS

The 1964 Gould Cross Country team have the strongest list of contenders which they have ever met. Their ten meet schedule, culminating in the Western Maine Conference, Mountain Valley Conference and State meets, will find them matching strides with some of the most powerful teams in Western Maine. In spite of this awesome schedule, veteran coach Frank Vogt feels that he has grounds for optimism. Abandoning the coach's traditional pessimism he points to a veteran nucleus composed of six lettermen and six other holdovers from last year's squad. "No one can have come out this year and be expected to beat a couple of these to give the veterans a battle for honors."

Last year's lettermen are Captain Bruce Luce, Vaughan Dwyer, Tom Chapman, Andy Mack, John Lombard and Ray Macomber.

Other returners are Paul Knight, Boyd Lane, Jack Brooks, Dave Carter, Warren Tibbets and Steve Moore.

Newcomers to the squad are Bob Everett, Lloyd Carter, Larry Fox, Mike Tibbets and Eugene Tibbets.

Phil Martin is the manager and is assisted by Gary Martin.

Gould will be defending its Western Maine Conference title.

THREE ENROLLMENT MARKS SET AT U. OF M.

Three all-time enrollment records have been established at the University of Maine, Registrar George H. Crosby states.

More students than ever before in the university's 100-year history have registered at the Orono campus, at the Portland campus, and at the two campuses combined.

The figures as of Tuesday a. m., Sept. 15, were as follows: Orono campus, 4,937; Portland campus, 518; combined, 5,455.

The old records, he said, are: Orono, 1,816; Portland, 470; combined, 2,286. All three were set last year.

All three totals for the present college year are expected to increase within the next few days, Crosby said, due to late registrations.

A breakdown of this fall's Orono campus enrollment of 4,937 is as follows: graduate students, 281; fifth-year students, 20; seniors, 1,027; juniors, 1,018; sophomores, 1,067; freshmen, 1,240; special students, 112; three-year nursing students, 40; unclassified degree candidates, 13; addition students, 5; two-year agriculture students, 80; and two-year students, 35.

FEDERAL GAS TAX REFUND FOR NON-HIGHWAY AND TRANSIT USERS

Whitney L. Wheeler, District Director of Internal Revenue for the Augusta District, reminded taxpayers who use gasoline for nonhighway purposes that they may have a tax refund due them. In general, a refund may be obtained of the two cents a gallon Federal tax paid on motor fuels when these fuels are used:

(1) For purposes other than in registered highway vehicles and (2), by certain transit systems.

purposes other than as a fuel in a highway vehicle may qualify for the 2-cent refund. Examples: Gasoline used in cleaning tools, machinery, etc., gasoline used in motorboats, aircraft, fork-lift trucks, bulldozers, earth movers, etc.

Refunds may also be made on gasoline used in a highway vehicle if, at the time of such use, the vehicle is not registered and is not required to be registered under the laws of the State in which it is operated or situated.

This might include gasoline used in autos and trucks operating off the highway in connection with construction, mining, or timbering projects if they meet the above requirements. Farmers are entitled to claim refunds each year for the Federal excise tax on gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes.

Claims for refund must be postmarked no later than September 30, 1964, for the 12-month period—July 1, 1963 through June 30, 1964.

Information on these refunds may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service.

'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan

Chevrolet Impala '65

It's longer, lower, wider—with comforts that'll have many an expensive car wondering why it didn't think of them first. More shoulder room, more leg room up front. Curved side windows, an instrument panel that's a conversation piece. In fact, just about everything's new right down to the road. And even that'll seem newer because the Jet-smooth ride is smoother than ever.

'65 Chevrolet Malibu Super Sport Coupe

Chevelle Malibu '65

Here's all that made Chevelle America's most popular new-sized car—plus some new surprises. Like those cleaner, bolder lines. Like the silky way its new ride skims over the choppiest roads. Like V8 power that'll make you think we stole some of Corvette's stuff—which we did. All told, five engines are available from a quieter six to a V8 that comes on 300 horses strong.

'65 Chevy II Nova 4-Door Sedan

Chevy II Nova '65

It may be the expensive-looking thrift car you've laid eyes on. But thrift it is. The big difference being that Chevy II's marvelous mechanical efficiency now wears a debonair new look. And offers a new range of engines, including a new 300-hp V8. You could get the idea that saving you money was the last thing we had in mind—if it weren't for that price sticker on the window.

New top-of-the-line Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

Corvair Corsa '65

How's this for sport with an international flair? The longer, wider design gives all closed models a hardtop roof, along with more shoulder and entrance room. And to go with the racier look, there's up to 180 hp available in the new Corsa series, up to 140 hp in the Monza and 500 series. Also a flatter riding independent suspension, more responsive steering and a wider road stance.

Two hundred and forty tickets were sold at the Bethel GTR station for visitors at Norway fair.

SALVATION ARMY IS ORGANIZING ANNUAL APPEAL

The local Service Unit Committee for The Salvation Army is organizing its Annual Appeal for funds, according to local chairman, Donald S. Brown.

The gifts which are received are used both for local needs and to help support the Army's social and national programs for orphans, children, aged, and those in various institutions.

Last Christmas every inmate in each of the state institutions received a sunshine basket containing candy, cookies, greeting card and other small gifts. Three little baskets brought much happiness to those who are forced to lead rather dreary lives.

The local committee retains twenty per cent of all gifts to meet with immediate welfare needs in Bethel and the surrounding area.

Members giving will result in no increase in service to those who are less fortunate. The Army's ability to secure the most good from each dollar has motivated that organization's high place in public opinion.

Gifts in any amount may be sent directly to the treasurer, Mrs. Evelyn H. Anderson, or they may be given to any member of the local committee.

They had been with Jesus. (Acts 4:13).

When we spend time with Jesus through studying His life and lessons, and through prayer, people recognize that we, too, have "been with Jesus." We are wise, but patient and kind in dealing with other persons. We are forgiving, free from criticism and condemnation. We gain a spiritual strength by practicing His teachings.

THE WILL IS LACKING

One thing is certain about the platforms our two political parties adopt every four years. They always promise the ultimate in economical government.

But a promise is one thing and performance is another.

Take the case of government economy, for instance. There certainly can be no doubt that there is waste and duplication of effort in just about every phase of public affairs. If the parties mean what they say, the budget can be safely pared by billions.

But that is only the problem and half the need. Economical government means government which, as a matter of rigid principle, keeps out of all those areas where the taxpayer's private area can do what is required. A prime example here is electric power. The record of the investor-owned utilities in meeting every demand, and at a cost which has tended steadily downward over the years, is a dramatic and inspiring one. In this field, we led the rest of the world by a very wide margin, and our technological superiority extends to all the elements which make up this complex industry. Yet the political pressures in favor of socialized power continue relentlessly. Huge sums of the taxpayers' money are needlessly spent—and then, to compound the economic crime, the taxes that would be collected if private enterprise did the jobs concerned are lost through tax exemption of government projects.

It is not the ability to cut the cost of government that has been lacking—it is the will. And that will can only be created by the strongest kind of public demand.

It is not the ability to cut the cost of government that has been lacking—it is the will. And that will can only be created by the strongest kind of public demand.

PURCHASE ORDERS UNDER ACP

All ASCS county offices in Maine have been authorized to issue purchase orders under the 1965 Agricultural Conservation Program for approved forestry practices. These purchase orders will guarantee prompt payment by the Federal Government of a specified sum for a specified service. Under the old system, which will still be available for use, cost-share payments for conservation measures carried out in the fall cannot be made until the following July or August.

William C. Chapman, Chairman of the Oxford ASC County Committee, says the new system will provide an opportunity for one or more people in each county to become vendors of such services as tree planting, weeding, thinning and pruning. Each farmer having an ACP approval selects the vendor of his choice and at his request, a purchase order is issued by the ASC county committee. As soon as the job is completed, the vendor submits his claim to the county ASC office and payment is made for the government's share of the cost. Chapman said vendors must have a good background knowledge of forestry and must be willing and able to perform their work according to ACP specifications. Service Foresters of the Maine Forest Service certify the need, practicability, and performance of all forestry practices under the ACP program in Maine.

In our neighboring state of New Hampshire, a number of professional foresters, experienced woods operators, and soil conservation districts are vendors of forestry services under the ACP program. They employ one or more small crews depending on the season and the demands. Warren Brown, Program Specialist at the Maine

Lorraine E. Barnes, Chapman Street, Bethel, and Judith K. Bode of the Burdett College faculty enjoy a few quiet minutes during freshman "get-acquainted" activities at Camp Grotton-wood, Grotton, Mass. Miss Barnes, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Barnes, is an Executive Secretarial major.

Also attending the College's School of Secretarial Science is Cynthia Freeman, daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Freeman, Tyler Street, Bethel. Miss Freeman is a Medical Secretarial major.

SCHOOL LUNCH

School lunch menus for the Crescent Park and Ethel Bisbee Schools, Sept. 28 and 29:

Monday: meat loaf, mashed potato, buttered beets, pudding, juice, bread and butter, milk.

Tuesday: hot dog in roll, tomato soup, crackers, apple pie, bread and butter, milk.

ASC State Office, tells us the purchase order system in New Hampshire has resulted in a three-fold increase in forestry conservation work in that State since its inception a few years ago.

Any person interested in becoming a vendor of forestry services in Maine should contact his county ASCS office for further details. The ASC county committee is responsible for approving vendors and will accept applications at any time.
